

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH A REALTOR®

Buying, selling or leasing real estate is probably the most important and potentially rewarding financial transaction you'll make in your life. So it is a good idea to take a moment and consider the kind of relationship you might be entering into with a REALTOR®. The more you know, the more satisfied you will be with the results.

REALTOR®s, Brokerages and real estate boards need to collect, use and disclose some personal information to help you sell, buy or lease real estate.

THE AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

REALTOR®s work within a legal relationship called agency. The agency relationship exists between you, the principal, and your Brokerage, the company under which the individual who is representing you, is licensed. The essence of the agency relationship is that the Brokerage has the authority to represent the principal in dealings with others.

Brokerages and their Licensees are legally obligated to protect and promote the interests of their principals as they would their own. Specifically, the Brokerage has the following duties:

- 1) Undivided loyalty. The Brokerage must protect the principal's negotiating position at all times, and disclose all known facts which may affect or influence the principal's decision.
- 2) To obey all lawful instructions of the principal.
- 3) An obligation to keep the confidences of the principal.
- 4) To exercise reasonable care and skill in performing all assigned duties.
- 5) To account for all money and property placed in a Brokerage's hands while acting for the principal.

You can expect competent service from your Brokerage, knowing that the company is bound by ethics and the law to be honest and thorough in representing a property listed for sale or lease. Both buyer/tenant and seller/landlord can be represented by their own Brokerages in a single transaction.

DUAL AGENCY

Dual agency occurs when a Brokerage is representing both the buyer/tenant and the seller/landlord in the same transaction. Since the Brokerage has promised a duty of confidentiality, loyalty and full disclosure to both parties simultaneously, it is necessary to limit these duties in this situation, if both parties consent.

If you find yourself involved in a dual agency relationship, before making or receiving an offer, both you and the other party will be asked to consent, in writing, to this new limited agency relationship.

This relationship involves the following limitations:

- a) The Brokerage will deal with the buyer/tenant and the seller/landlord impartially;
- b) The Brokerage will have a duty of disclosure to both the buyer/tenant and the seller/landlord except that:
  - i) the Brokerage will not disclose that the buyer/tenant is willing to pay a price or agree to terms other than those contained in the offer, or that the seller/landlord is willing to accept a price or terms other than those contained in the listing;
  - ii) the Brokerage will not disclose the motivation of the buyer/tenant to buy or lease or the seller/landlord to sell or lease unless authorized by the buyer/tenant or the seller/landlord;
  - iii) the Brokerage will not disclose personal information, not otherwise necessarily disclosed in the transaction documentation, about the buyer/tenant or seller/landlord to the other party unless authorized in writing;
- c) The Brokerage will disclose to the buyer/tenant defects about the physical condition of the property known to the Brokerage.

WHEN THERE IS NO AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

You may also choose to use the services of a REALTOR® without having any kind of agency relationship. This might occur, for example, when you are being shown a property by the seller/landlord's agent.

The REALTOR® you choose to work with in this manner has a legal and ethical duty to provide you with accurate, honest answers to your questions and may provide all these services:

- Explain real estate terms and practices
- Provide and explain forms used
- Assist you in viewing and viewing properties
- Inform you of lenders and their policies
- Identify and estimate costs involved in a transaction
- Assist you in establishing your range of affordability
- Prepare offers or counter-offers at your direction
- Present all offers promptly

A REALTOR® who is not your agent cannot:

- Recommend or suggest a price
- Inform you of his/her principal's top/bottom line
- Disclose any confidential information about his/her principal unless otherwise authorized

You should not provide a REALTOR® who is not your agent with any information that you would not provide directly to his or her principal.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS A BUYER/TENANT OR A SELLER/LANDLORD

As a buyer/tenant or a seller/landlord, you should:

- Carefully read all documents and understand what you are signing.
- If you need special or expert advice, seek other professionals such as lawyers, notaries, accountants, home inspectors, contractors, engineers and surveyors.

AGENCY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Agency acknowledgement clauses such as the following will be used in the Contract of Purchase and Sale or the Offer to Lease:

The seller/landlord has an agency relationship with _____ (Brokerage) and _____ (Licensee)

The buyer/tenant has an agency relationship with _____ (Brokerage) and _____ (Licensee)

The buyer/tenant and the seller/landlord have consented to a limited dual agency relationship with _____ (Brokerage) and _____ (Licensee)

The buyer/tenant and the seller/landlord have consented to a limited dual agency relationship with _____ (Brokerage) and _____ (Licensee)

_____ (Licensee) and _____ (Licensee) having signed a Limited Dual Agency Agreement dated _____, Yr. _____

Members of the public are aware that in most cases properties offered for sale or lease by members of the real estate profession have a commission or fee that the seller/landlord has agreed to pay to the Listing Brokerage.

The Listing Brokerage traditionally shares this commission/fee with the Cooperating Brokerage. Commission and fee may vary.

WORKING WITH A REALTOR®

PRIVACY

REALTOR®s, Brokerages and real estate boards need to collect, use and disclose some personal information to help you sell, buy or lease real estate. We respect your privacy and want to ensure you understand how and why your information is collected, used and disclosed in a real estate transaction.

How is my personal information collected? Most personal information will be collected directly from you through the contracts and other documents you fill out (e.g., Multiple Listing Contract, Contract of Purchase and Sale, Offer to Lease, seller's Property Disclosure Statement) and through discussions you have with your REALTOR®. Some information may be collected from other sources such as government departments and agencies (e.g., Land Title Offices, BC Assessment), financial institutions and mortgage brokers.

To whom may my personal information be disclosed? Your information may be disclosed to (or may be accessible by) the Boards and their staff and members, other real estate boards and their staff and members, other REALTOR®s and their clients, government departments and agencies, financial institutions, legal advisors, service providers, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and members of the public, for the purposes described below.

Not all of your information will be accessible to each of the above-mentioned entities. For example, once the listing term has ended, the general public will not have access to your information unless it is otherwise available through public registries (e.g., BC Assessment, Land Title Offices).

PURPOSES FOR COLLECTING, USING AND DISCLOSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

Why is my personal information collected, used and disclosed? Your information may be collected, used and disclosed for some or all of the following purposes:

- a) To allow members of real estate boards (including REALTOR®s and appraisers) to appraise your property.
- b) To list your property with the Multiple Listing Service® in order to market your property.
- c) To market your property for sale or lease through any other media (both print and electronic).
- d) To help you locate a suitable property to purchase or lease.
- e) To facilitate the listing of your real estate transaction (by cooperating with financial institutions, legal advisors and government departments and agencies).
- f) To allow the Boards and other real estate boards and their members (including REALTOR®s and appraisers) to compile current and historical statistics on sales and property prices and lease rates, and to conduct comparative market analyses. Information about your property will be retained in the Multiple Listing Service® for these purposes after your property has sold or leased or your listing has expired (if you are a seller/landlord) and after you have purchased or leased your property (if you are a buyer/tenant).
- g) To enforce codes of professional conduct and ethics for members of real estate boards (by cooperating with real estate boards, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and other regulatory bodies).
- h) To comply with legal requirements and to act pursuant to legal authorizations.

The above-mentioned collections, uses and disclosures are a necessary part of your relationship with your REALTOR®.

Will my personal information be collected, used and disclosed for any other purposes? Your information may also be collected, used and disclosed for the following additional purposes:

- a) Your REALTOR® may communicate with you in future to determine whether you require additional real estate services.
- b) Your REALTOR® may communicate with you to provide information about other products or services which may interest you.
- c) Other REALTOR®s may communicate with you to determine whether you require additional real estate services.
- d) The Boards, other real estate boards and their members, and survey firms on their behalf, may communicate with you to determine if you wish to participate in customer satisfaction surveys and other surveys. These additional purposes are optional. If you do not want your personal information disclosed or used for these purposes, please contact the Board's privacy officer. Contact information for all real estate boards within BC can be found at the British Columbia Real Estate Association (BCREA) website: www.bcrea.bc.ca or telephone 604.683.7702.

DEFINITIONS

The Brokerage is the real estate company under which the individual is licensed.

The Licensee is the managing broker, associate broker and/or representative of a Brokerage.

REALTOR® is often used interchangeably with licensee, real estate agent or representative and, in BC, is licensed under the Real Estate Services Act. A Licensee can use the term REALTOR® if he/she belongs to a local real estate board or association that enforces a strict Code of Ethics.

The Boards are the real estate boards and associations in whose jurisdiction the property is located and/or of which the Brokerage or the REALTOR® is a member. They are boards and associations which assist REALTOR®s to market, sell or lease real estate. The Boards also provide ongoing training for their members, enforce ethical standards and help resolve disputes between members and the public.

The Multiple Listing Service® is a computerized database of real estate listings and sales. It is operated by the Boards in conjunction with other real estate boards and The Canadian Real Estate Association.

Personal information means any personal information about you, including your name, address, phone number, financial information and may include information about your property (such as listing and selling price, lease rate, listing term, etc.).

The buyer/tenant is often referred to as the purchaser.

The seller/landlord is often referred to as the vendor.

The principal is someone who has engaged a Brokerage to act for and on his or her behalf either to buy, sell or lease real estate.

The landlord is often referred to as the lessor.

The tenant is often referred to as the lessee.

This brochure has been designed to explain various types of agency relationships, the collection, use and disclosure of personal information, and to help you understand what it all means. If you are still unclear about these concepts, feel free to seek legal counsel.

I acknowledge having received and read the brochure Working With a REALTOR®. I understand the various types of relationships that may occur between myself and a REALTOR®.

I consent to the Boards, other real estate boards, the Brokerage and the Licensee collecting, using and disclosing personal information for the purposes (and to the recipients) described in the brochure.

I further understand that I will be signing additional documentation acknowledging the type of agency that I receive and consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information.
